ORGANIZATION OF THE MINISTRY OF AGRICULTURAL PROCUREMENT USSR

[Numbers in parentheses refer to appended sources.]

The Committee for Procurement of Agricultural Products was established under the Council of Labor and Defense on 13 February 1932, and on 13 February 1934 it was placed under the Council of People's Commissars USSR. On 15 January 1938, at the first session of the first congress of the Supreme Soviet USSR, the decision was taken to organize an All-Union People's Commissariat of Agricultural Procurement on the basis of the Committee for Procurement of Agricultural Products. (1) On 15 March 1946, the People's Commissariat of Agricultural Procurement USSR became the Ministry of Agricultural Procurement USSR. (2)

Administrative Units

The main administrations and other administrative units given below were listed in a 1948 source as subordinate to the Ministry of Agricultural Procurement USSR (Subordination of combines and other units has been indicated where known, or where, from the similarity of titles, it may probably be assumed; the latter cases are marked with an asterisk (*). In cases where the determination of subordination was not possible, the administrative units were simply listed.)

Main Administrations

1. Main Administration for Procurement of Grain and Oleaginous Crops (Glavzagotzerno) (3)

*All-Union Combine for Grain Procurement in the Eastern Rayons (Vostokzagotzerno) (4)

such representatives follows. It was compiled from signatures appended to telegrams sent to the Kremlin announcing fulfillment of 1951 plans for delivery to the state of grains, etc. The list is incomplete because some oblasts, krays, and autonomous republics do not grow these products, while others did not fulfill their 1951 state delivery plans. The two newspapers Pravda (P) and Sotsialisticheskoye Zemel'deliya (SZ) are the sources for this information; the appropriate states are listed alongside each name.
